ROSS FOR SENATOR

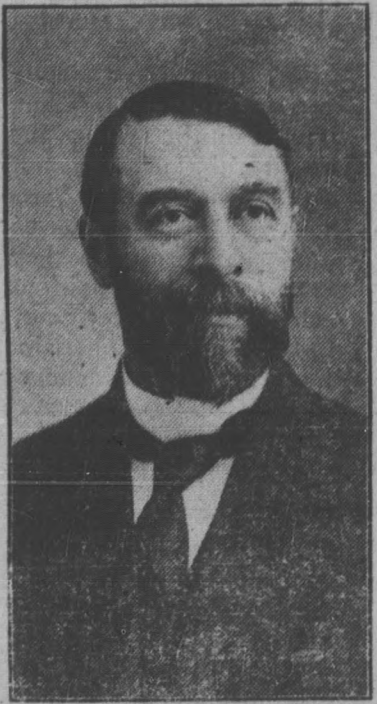

Hall C. Ross, the Republican nominee for Joint Senator, is thoroughly equipped for the place both by education and experience. He is a forcible speaker, a good lawyer and a hard worker and those attributes fit him for senator. Mr. Ross is making a splendid campaign and everywhere is meeting with encouragement. It is predicted by his friends that his majority in San Mateo county will be over 1000.

A GOOD TICKET

The Republican convention placed a good ticket in the field for South San Francisco last Wednesday the support of the party. H. E. Holmquist, the nominee for the assembly, is a young man of good character, able and in every way fitted for the position. J. J. Bullock, the nominee for Superior Judge, is an able lawyer, has a good judicial mind and if elected will make an honest and just judge. Julius Eikerenkotter has filled the office of Supervisor of the first township for the past eight years with credit to himself and his district. His roads are in fine condition and the people will without doubt elect him by a large majority. John MacBain stands upon his record as supervisor of the third township. He has been a faithful public servant. Through his constant diligence the taxpayers have been saved large sums of money for extra work on the new courthouse. His roads were never in better condition. The voters appreciate this and will re-elect him by a pronounced majority. T. C. Johnston is the nominee for supervisor in the fourth township. He knows the needs of his district having resided in that township the greater portion of his life. He is a popular candidate and his friends predict his election by a large vote.

HAYES FOR CONGRESS

Among the aphorisms given to the world by Abraham Lincoln is the saying "Never swap horses in the middle of a stream." That saying applies with force to the present political situation in this Congressional district. Four years ago when the time came to nominate a candidate for Congress there was no rivalry among the Republicans for the honor, probably for the reason that success at the polls was to say the least, very doubtful. The workmen had been won over to the Democratic party. Two years before Congressman Loud, who had served as a Representative in Washington for several terms, and who was well known over the whole country because of his long service on the committee on Post Offices, was easily beaten by an unknown Labor candidate from San Francisco. At such a time the party was glad to tender E. A. Hayes a unanimous nomination which he had the courage to accept. He secured an election and served his party well enough to be unanimously re-nominated, and his district well enough to be easily re-elected. After he has twice defeated the strongest candidates the Democracy could bring against him, and after he has made the district safely Republican some members of his party would like to retire him from the position he has once more made possible for a Republican to hold. Such a course will prove harmful to the people whom he is more able now than ever before to serve, and to his party will be nothing short of political suicide. If Mr. Hayes is beaten by such opponents, it may be years before the district will again send a Republican to Congress. No party can trifle with the interests of the American voter of the West, and retain his confidence. By a fair and open contest he has for a third time secured the nomination, though there was no sufficient reason for a contest. If the disgruntled element compass his defeat under these conditions, they simply invite the political oblivion which will surely be their portion.

Again the Democrats have searched among the hardy sons of toil, and have found a candidate who like the others has long ago forgotten the use of the real tools of labor if he ever knew them, and who like them has found it more pleasant and profitable to represent laboring men than to serve in their ranks. Even with an opposing candidate who claims to have come up from the ranks, Mr. Hayes' task will be easy if he has the proper and deserved support from the members of his own party. To be sure the San Jose Times and the Examiner are against him. Why shouldn't they be against him? He is very much in their way in the fifth district, and has been the target of their abuse ever since he aspired to political leadership. We hardly understand the kind of Republican a man is who will let such papers serve as guides to his political thinking. As is well known one of these editors deserves to be in jail for slander, and the other well as yet there has not been found any suitable place to consign him. We will generously turn the matter of his proper disposition over to the editor of the Call.

To be sure Rudolph Spreckles didn't want Mr. Hayes re-nominated, and in fact he seems to have put forth every exertion to insure his defeat. No man of generous nature would hold a grudge against his antagonist for beating him under such conditions. If Mr. Spreckles and his friends continue their opposition they not only show they are not Republicans, but they also show they are false to the party they can't control, and are men of such small mental caliber as to be unworthy of further support. It ought to be easy for a thinking Republican to determine his duty. It ought not be hard to choose between Spreckles and Hayes if such a choice is demanded. The control of the next House of Representatives is not so certain as to admit of any defection in districts heretofore safely Republican. The Democracy have 132 districts in the South to which they do not need to give any attention as the Republicans can do nothing in them. This permits the Democratic party to concentrate its efforts in Northern districts where the Republican majority is small. Do the dissatisfied Republicans of this district mean to help the Democracy gain a victory? We can not believe them to be so unfaithful and unpatriotic. On the other hand we do believe the Republican voters will do what they can to keep a solid Republican delegation in Congress, because such a policy will conserve the best interests of the Nation and the State. Great things have been done for California in the past two years by a solid Republican delegation, and great things can be done in the future if the representatives of the Republican party are continued in power.

REPUBLICANS IN CONVENTION

Name Strong Ticket at South City

One of the liveliest and most enthusiastic Republican conventions ever held in San Mateo County took place in South San Francisco last Wednesday. The widest enthusiasm prevailed throughout the deliberations of the convention. The mention of the names of Taft and Roosevelt brought a thunder of applause. It was a representative body and greatest interest was taken in the work of the convention.

At 11 o'clock the convention was called to order by John MacBain, the chairman of the County Committee. After the secretary, Hall C. Ross, had read the temporary roll Mr. MacBain called for the nomination of a temporary chairman. Thomas Connelly named W. J. Martin of South San Francisco and he was unanimously chosen. He was escorted to the chair by Captain Lyon and Mr. Connelly. Mr. Martin made a ringing speech in which he thanked the convention for the honor conferred upon him. He took occasion to say that the weather last Monday when the Democratic Convention took place here in this hall was languid and compared it with the tameness of the meeting while today there was a refreshing breeze to arouse Republican enthusiasm. The chairman then called for the nomination of a temporary secretary. John MacBain named H. O. Heiner of Redwood City and he was chosen without opposition. Later on Al Lowe was made as assistant secretary.

On motion of R. H. Jury of San Mateo the chair appointed the following committees:

Credentials committee, John MacBain, H. G. Dowdall, P. A. Rousseau, A. F. Gilchrist, F. A. Blomquist, J. Caughey, Harry Edwards; permanent organization, J. T. O'Keefe, C. T. Connelly, A. S. Hatch, F. Plinkham, R. H. Jury, A. F. Ludemann, James S. Madden; platform and resolutions, George W. Lovie, chairman; Harry E. Styles, Rev. W. A. Brewer, D. J. Lynch, M. J. Perry, W. W. Casey, W. Hooper.

A recess was then taken until 1 o'clock to give the committees time to report.

On reassembling Chairman announced that the convention was ready to hear the reports. John MacBain, chairman of the committee on credentials reported that the following delegates were entitled to seats in the convention:

Casey), Louis Huey, W. G. Loveland, Roy W. A. Brewer, William T. Young, W. E. Bain, Lawrence Cahill, A. T. Potter (by W. W. Casey).

The report was adopted without opposition. James T. O'Keefe, chairman of the committee on Order of business, reported that the temporary officers of the convention, that all persons to be placed in nomination pay the secretary the sum of $10, that the nomination of an assemblyman be made first and a Judge of the Superior Court be made second and that nominations for Supervisor be made in the first, third and fourth townships, and that four committee men be selected from the first, second and third townships and two each from the fourth and fifth. The report was unanimously adopted.

George W. Lovie, chairman of the committee on platform and resolutions, read the following platform which was adopted with cheers:

The Republican party of the County of San Mateo, State of California, in representative convention assembled, composed of Delegates elected at open primaries throughout the County, does hereby declare its principles and policy upon which it stands, presents its candidates and proposes to ask the votes of the people, and its representatives do hereby declare as follows:

1. Resolved that we re-affirm our allegiance to the doctrines and principles of the Republican Party, as set forth and declared in its national and state platforms of 1908.

2. Resolved that we endorse and commend the administration of that fearless champion of the people THEODORE ROOSEVELT, President of the United States.

3. Resolved that we endorse and approve the conservative, economical and prudent management of the Republican administration of the state of California, and further, endorse and approve the acts of our senators and representatives in the Congress of the United States, and further, we endorse and approve all acts of our outgoing County Committee.

4. Resolved that we pledge our unqualified support to the Honorable William H. Taft and James S. Sherman for president and vice-president of the United States, and to the entire Republican ticket to be voted for at the coming election in November next.

5. Resolved that the nomination of Hall C. Ross for the office of senator for the 29th Senatorial District, composed of Santa Cruz and San Mateo Counties, be, and the same is hereby endorsed and approved, and that the delegates to this convention, by reason of their acquaintance with him and their knowledge of his integrity, ability and qualification for such office, and their firm belief that if elected he will work for the interest of the whole people of both counties, and will cast his vote in the legislature of our state in 1909, and again in 1911, for a United States Senator from California who will support the national Republican administration and uphold the policies of Theodore Roosevelt and William H. Taft, do also hereby invite and urge all electors of the Senatorial District to give Mr. Ross their support and votes.

6. Resolved, that whereas, San Mateo County is rapidly increasing in population and is experiencing a period of great development, and realizing that the public roads are one of the main factors in the development of the county, we pledge our nominees to support all movements for the betterment of the public highways and to exercise special diligence in the employment and disbursement of the public road funds.

7. Resolved that we endorse the movement suggested at the "Good Roads Convention", held at the city of Santa Cruz, for the construction and maintenance of main public roads and highways to the end that our state keep pace with the march of improvement, and to afford facilities for travel and transportation and to aid in the further development of the resources of our state.

8. Resolved that we favor a liberal appropriation by the next State Legislature for the support of the University of California, and pledge our candidates to favor legislation granting liberal provision for its support, in keeping with its growing needs, and particularly to provide against any diminution of its revenues derived from taxation.

9. Resolved that whereas, a Republican Legislature has caused to be submitted to the people of this state for adoption, an amendment to the constitution authorizing the enactment of laws providing for the nomination of candidates for public office by the people at primary elections, we urge upon the voters, regardless of party, to work and vote for the adoption of said amendment, and we pledge our candidates for the Assembly and Senate to work and vote for proper legislation to carry out and into effect the provisions of such amendment.

10. Whereas, our state prisons, containing over 2,600 prisoners, are so badly overcrowded as to make it impossible to apply effective reformatory treatment or to separate first offenders and young prisoners from older and confirmed criminals, and whereas, most of the prisoners when sentenced are under the age of thirty, and many are under the age of twenty-one years, and experience has shown that the great majority of such prisoners can be permanently reformed by treatment in a modern reformatory, such as those established in the most progressive Eastern states:

Resolved, That we pledge our nominees to the legislature to make such appropriations and enact such laws as may be necessary to immediately establish in California a modern reformatory for first offenders and others capable of being reformed.

11. Resolved, that we cordially invite all citizens to join with us in maintaining that standard of administration, national, state and county, established and upheld by the Republican Party, as being in the interest of the whole people.

Respectfully submitted, Geo. W. Lovie, Harry E. Styles, William A. Brewer, D. J. Lynch, M. J. Perry, W. W. Casey, Wm. A. Hooser.

J. T. O'Keefe offered an amendment to the report placing the convention on record as unalterably opposed to any scheme for making San Mateo county a portion of Greater San Francisco; but the convention ruled O'Keefe's addition out of the report.

Chairman Martin then declared nominations in order for assemblyman. George W. Lovie of Redwood City took the platform and in a well delivered address placed the name of H. E. Holmquist before the convention. He lauded the young man's qualities for the position and praised his ambition saying that through his own efforts he had received an education that fitted him for the assembly.

W. J. Smith of South San Francisco in a brief but ringing speech nominated Henry Ward Brown of Colma. Both the nominees were called to the platform and pledged themselves to support the platform and nominees of the convention. Mr. Holmquist was first to appear. He delivered a stirring address, eloquent and full of force. He paid a brilliant tribute to W. H. Taft and promised to do his full duty if nominated and elected. Henry Ward Brown spoke in his usual eloquent manner. He declared that he was offered an independent nomination for the assembly but in forcible terms said the Republican party was good enough for him. He predicted that Taft would carry the state of California by 50,000 votes.

On a count being taken Holmquist received 75 and a half votes and Brown 18 and a half votes. The former was declared the nominee of the convention.

The nomination for Superior Judge being in order Harry Edwards mounted the platform and nominated J. J. Bullock. He said his candidate was not large of stature but was every inch a gentleman. The mention of Mr. Bullock's name brought forth a loud burst of applause that lasted several minutes. Mr. Lafayette of Vista Grande in an appropriate speech seconded the nomination. The appearance of Mr. Bullock on the platform was the signal for another outburst.

The delegates got upon their feet and cheered loudly. Mr. Bullock thanked the convention for the honor and pledged if elected he would be impartial in his decisions. He promised to make the best canvass possible for the office.

J. J. BULLOCK,
Republican nominee for Superior Judge.

Hall C. Ross, the nominee for Joint Senator, was called to the platform and delivered a rousing speech. He reviewed the history of the Republican party, paying a fine tribute to the Republican standard bearer, W. H. Taft. He humorously told of his first meeting with his opponent, Mr. Holohan, that put the convention in convulsions of laughter. At the conclusion of his address he was given round after round of applause.

The convention took a recess to give the several townships an opportunity to make nominations and report to the body of the convention.

At 3 o'clock the convention reconvened.

The First Township reported as follows: Nominee for Supervisor Julius Eikenkotter, committee men, Charles Luderman, Colma, Theodore Lafayette, Vista Grande, D. J. Lynch, San Bruno, T. C. Connelly, South City.

Second Township: Committee men, Hall C. Ross, J. D. Kerr, San Mateo, P. A. Rousseau, Belmont, F. B. Lorton, Burlingame.

Third Township: Nominee for Supervisor John MacBain, committee men, James T. O'Keefe, George W. Lovie, William Hooper, H. O. Heiner.

Fourth Township: Nominee for Supervisor T. C. Johnston of Halfmoon Bay, committee men, D. J. Lynch and Alvin Hatch.

Fifth Township, committee men, C. J. Coburn and D. E. Blackburn.

All the township nominations were ratified by the convention. MacBain and T. C. Johnston had no opposition for supervisor. In the first township Eikenkotter defeated George Sneath by a vote of 18 to 10. The two secretaries were voted $10 each but they graciously returned the money to the county committee. The work of the convention being completed an adjournment was taken amid the wildest enthusiasm.

W. J. Martin made a splendid presiding officer, cool and deliberate in all his rulings he made a hit with the delegates.

After the adjournment of the convention the county committee met and elected T. C. Connelly chairman and H. O. Heiner secretary.

Builders' Contract.

The following builder's contracts were filed in the Recorder's office during the week:

R. S. Harris agrees to erect for C. Jellinck in 90 days a one story frame bungalow on his property in the City of Burlingame for $2227.

Currie and Currie stipulate to build for Sigmund Stern, a two story and basement frame dwelling on his property at Fair Oaks for $18,360. The contract for plastering has also been awarded to Currie and Currie for $3800.

Democrats Name Ticket

The Democratic convention held at South San Francisco last Monday nominated J. B. Flavey for the assembly, Judge George H. Buck for Superior Judge, James T. Casey for Supervisor of the first township and Joseph M. Francis for supervisor of the fourth township. The third township made no nomination for supervisor, but it is thought the convention will be called together tomorrow to make the nomination.

Mrs. Morgan has returned from a month's vacation spent in San Luis Obispo county.
